SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift started out being very busy in the beginning, and it tapered down towards the end of the shift. Officers left briefing early to assist on the robbery that swingshift was responding to. Officers then started responding to various calls for service. Officers investigated a traffic collision on the south end of town and found that the driver had a traffic warrant from a local police department, the driver was cited and released. Later in the night, officers responded to a violation of a court order. The suspect had a "get along order" stating he could not harass or confront the protected party. On this night, he was intoxicated and fell asleep in her room. he started an argument with her and cursed at her, before walking outside where he pushed in an air conditioning unit. He was located as he walked away from the residence. He was intoxicated, and was arrested for public intoxication and violating his protective order.
