SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today is our first day of our work week. Most of our shift was caught up from the week before and most Officers went straight out and began making self-initiated proactive stops. Officers made numerous arrests in the morning from their proactive work. An Officer located two males camped out in the rear of a business trespassing. The Officer later learned one of the males had a warrant and he was placed under arrest. Another Officer located individuals camping on private property next to a business. One of the subjects had three warrants and was arrested and taken to Jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was our shifts first day back to work. It was a very busy shift throughout the day and slowed down later in the evening. Officers responded to the 1400 block of North Tully for a disturbance. Officers arrived on scene and learned that the person responsible had left prior to their arrival. Officers searched the area and located the subject who was determined to have a warrant for their arrest. Officers contacted the individual who was not compliant and resisted arrest. The subject was taken into custody and later booked into Stanislaus County Jail for the warrant and new charges.
