CATEGORIES

1 Trespassing	3 Warrant Arrest	1 Shoplifting
1 Death-Unknown	1 Narcotics Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift was steady all evening with calls for service and self-initiated activity resulting in numerous arrests. A male was urinating at a business downtown and had been trespass admonished in the past for being at this same business. He was booked for trespassing along with a misdemeanor warrant he had. Four others were arrested for warrants and narcotics charges as a result of traffic stops and bike stops throughout the evening. A female was caught shoplifting at Target and lied several times about her name. The officer finally determined her true identity and she was found to have 3 felony warrants out of Sacramento County and a million-dollar Ramey warrant out of Sacramento County for escape charges. She was booked for all of her warrants along with fresh charges of theft and impersonating another.
