SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Tonight, was very similar to the previous night, in regards to the officers being busy responding to calls. They responded to calls most of the night, but still had time to perform proactive policing in various parts of the city. Officers investigated a shoplifting at a local retail store. Officers were able to locate the suspects' car and waited until she showed up. After she was detained, she stated that the items "fell" into her bag. She was eventually cited for shoplifting and the property was returned to the victim store. Officers also made several arrests that stemmed from the contact of suspicious peoples.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to a large house party involving several underage minors drinking. While dispersing the party an officer saw a vehicle speeding away and stopped it. The juvenile driver was arrested for DUI. An officer saw a male who was recognized to have several outstanding warrants. The male was contacted and booked into jail. While extra patrolling the bars downtown, an officer found an intoxicated male slumped over in the middle of the roadway acting belligerent. The officer attempted to coordinate a ride home for the male, but the male would not cooperate. He got up and decided to run from the officer. He was caught and taken to jail for public intoxication. Officers also responded to a vandalism in-progress after an intoxicated male was seen hitting a parked vehicle with a belt. When officers arrived, the male was on the hood of the car. After inspecting the car, the owner located fresh damage caused by the male. He was arrested and booked into jail.
