SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Swing shift followed dayshift, in regards to being a quiet day. This was also the last day of our swing shift rotation. The day allowed the officers to complete any reports that needed to be completed, as well as perform follow-up. Officers also conducted traffic stops throughout the shift.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT
Sgt. Cervantez

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 5

CATEGORIES

1 Death-Unknown

1 Auto Burglary

2 Warrant Arrest

1 Public Intoxication

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Calls for service on graves was consistent with day and swing shift. Officers used the last shift of this rotation to get reports completed. Traffic stops were made during the night, as well as extra patrols for TMC violations. An officer contacted a male who was in a vehicle in an empty parking lot. The male was on felony probation and had an outstanding warrant from the sheriff's department. A probation search was done and the male was arrested for the warrant. An officer also contacted two males, one was intoxicated in public, the other had a warrant. They were both taken to jail.
