SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a calm Sunday morning which led into the afternoon. Officers responded to calls that did not require a report. Some calls to note was a mother reporting her 4-year-old son was missing from their home. As officers were on the way to the call, the mother located him playing in the backyard. Officers also spent a significant amount of time searching for an out-of-county runaway at the request of Merced County, due to her cell phone pinging somewhere in the downtown area. Officers were unable to locate her. Towards the end of shift officers responded to Kohl's for a shoplifting in-progress. When officers arrived, they contacted the suspect walking out of the store with unpaid merchandise; She was arrested.
